Presbyterian Children's Village promotes Kelly Beattie to Adoption Supervisor

(Rosemont, PA): Presbyterian Children's Village (PCV) is pleased to announce the promotion of Kelly Beattie to adoption supervisor. She will be responsible for all facets of adoption work to clients who have been referred for adoption services. Beattie has held various roles at the Village over the past 11 year, most recently as a social worker in the adoption program. Beattie received her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from East Stroudsburg University.

Founded as an orphanage in 1877, Presbyterian Children's Village today is a non-profit corporation dedicated to the healing of the spirits of children, families and communities broken by violence, addiction, poverty, mental illness, racism and other serious societal problems. The Village serves more than 6,500 children each year in the greater Philadelphia area.
