Presbyterian Children's Village Board Elects New Members and Officers

(Rosemont, PA) The Presbyterian Children's Village is pleased to announce that the following have been elected as new members to the Board of Directors.

John Sundquist recently retired from Lockheed Martin, King of Prussia, PA where he served as Vice President of Program Management.

Richard Emrich is Vice President for Human Resources at Broder Brothers, Trevoese, PA, a distributor of imprintable sportswear and accessories.

Donna Henry is the Executive Director of the Southwest Community Development Corporation, an organization committed to the development of housing resources in Southwest Philadelphia.

Deborah Ware has been a tutor at Project Home and volunteered at The Agnes Irwin School and The Haverford School and various non-profit organizations in the Philadelphia area.

The following have been elected Officers of the Board:

Elizabeth S. Gadsden has been reelected Chair of the Board of Directors. She is a former social worker and supervisor of adolescent services with the Bucks County Children and Youth Social Services Agency and resides in Gladwyne, PA.

Thomas O. Hiscott has been reelected Vice Chair of the Board of Directors. He is an attorney and partner with the firm of Heckscher, Teillon, Terrill and Sager, P.C. in West Conshohocken, PA.

Joan Mount has been reelected Secretary of the Board of Directors. She retired as a senior drug safety associate from Johnson & Johnson Pharmaceutical Company in Philadelphia, PA and resides in Philadelphia, PA.

R. Scott Latimer has been reelected Treasurer of the Board of Directors. He is a principal with the firm PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Philadelphia, PA.

Maris Ogg has been reelected Assistant Treasurer of the Board of Directors. She is the President and one of three founders of Tower Bridge Advisors, located in West Conshohocken, PA, an asset management firm.

Founded as an orphanage in 1877, Presbyterian Children's Village today is a non-profit corporation dedicated to the healing of the spirits of children, families and communities broken by violence, addiction, poverty, mental illness, racism and other serious societal problems. The Village serves more than 6,500 children each year in the greater Philadelphia area.
