Presbyterian Children's Village Board Elects New Members and Officers

(Rosemont, PA) The Presbyterian Children's Village is pleased to announce that the following have been elected as new members to the Board of Directors.

Rebecca F. Brinks is a local artist who is completing her Masters in Education at Rosemont College and plans to pursue a second career in Urban Education.

Jane Krumrine retired from Johnson & Higgins Insurance as the Vice-President of Corporate Communications Worldwide (New York, NY).

Joanne Markman teaches Spanish at the Gateway School (Gladwyne, PA) and is a volunteer in the Create-A-Book writing program at the TM Pierce School in West Philadelphia, PA.

Robert Taylor is an attorney for Thomas Jefferson Hospital specializing in human resources and employment issues.

Stephanie Watkins recently founded her own consulting firm for small businesses. She was formerly the Regional Administrator for the U.S. Small Business Administration.

The following have been elected Officers of the Board:

Elizabeth S. Gadsden has been elected Chair of the Board of Directors. She is a former social worker and supervisor of adolescent services with the Bucks County Children and Youth Social Services Agency and resides in Gladwyne, PA.

Thomas O. Hiscott has been elected Vice Chair of the Board of Directors. He is an attorney and partner with the firm of Heckscher, Teillon, Terrill and Sager, P.C. in West Conshohocken, PA.

Joan Mount has been reelected Secretary of the Board of Directors. She retired as a senior drug safety associate from Johnson & Johnson Pharmaceutical Company in Philadelphia, PA and resides in Philadelphia, PA.

R. Scott Latimer has been elected Treasurer of the Board of Directors. He is a principal with the firm PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Philadelphia, PA.

Maris Ogg has been elected Assistant Treasurer of the Board of Directors. She is the President and one of three founders of Tower Bridge Advisors, located in West Conshohocken, PA, an asset management firm.

Founded as an orphanage in 1877, Presbyterian Children's Village today is a non-profit corporation dedicated to the healing of the spirits of children, families and communities broken by violence, addiction, poverty, mental illness, racism and other serious societal problems. The Village serves more than 7,100 children each year in the greater Philadelphia area.
