Presbyterian Children's Village CEO Darlene Hewett elected to board of statewide agency

(Rosemont, PA): Presbyterian Children's Village is pleased to announce that Darlene Hewett, PCV President and CEO, has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Council of Children, Youth, and Family Services (PCCYFS). PCCYFS is a statewide organization of private agencies that provide the programs and supports needed to achieve and maintain permanency and safety for children and youth and stability for families. Its mission is to improve the quality of life for Pennsylvania's children, youth, and families who are at risk by supporting and promoting an accessible service delivery system within our communities.

Founded as an orphanage in 1877, Presbyterian Children's Village today is a non-profit corporation dedicated to the healing of the spirits of children, families and communities broken by violence, addiction, poverty, mental illness, racism and other serious societal problems. The Village serves more than 7,100 children each year in the greater Philadelphia area.
