Volunteering at the Village:
Information Sessions Explain the Agency, the Children, the Opportunities

(Rosemont, PA) The Presbyterian Children's Village is pleased to announce two upcoming Volunteer Overview and Information Sessions. These sessions will last about one hour and cover the various opportunities available, required documentation, and answer any questions about the programs and the children served.

Volunteer opportunities include but are not limited to:

- Career Days
- Tutoring
- Life Skills and Hobbies for boys and girls, such as sewing, music, gardening, bike repair, cooking
- Group Projects
- Non-direct contact activities such as filing, copying, collating mailings, etc.

All sessions held at the Rosemont Campus, 452 S. Roberts Road between Ithan Avenue and Conestoga Road. Volunteer Opportunities are available at both Village Locations – in Rosemont and Southwest Philadelphia.

Session Options: Thursday, October 22, 2009, 8:30-9:30 AM
Thursday, October 22, 2009, 4:00-5:00 PM
